

Coming Next in the “Maine Living” Chat Series

Sunday, February 7, 2:00 p.m.

“Lighthouse Memories” with Marla Rogers of Owls Head. Learn what it was like to grow up in two New England lighthouses.

Sunday, March 7, 2:00 p.m.

“Not at All the Simple Life” with Eva Murray of Matinicus Island. See a slide show and chat about the challenges of living on a remote island.

Sunday, April 11, 2:00 p.m.

“The Art of the Fiddle” with Kip Yattaw of Port Clyde, a fiddle maker and musician. Enjoy his traditional bluegrass music and learn how he handcrafts fiddles.

Historical Society’s Cramer Museum

(Just off Route One at the Camden/Rockport town line)

Refreshments will be served.

General Admission $5, Society Members $3

All proceeds go to the Conway Homestead Roof Repair Fund.